Rich's Focus as a Councilmember:

Public Safety. Rich believes that public safety is the most important service the City of Renton provides. A strong supporter of our Renton Police Department and Renton Fire and Emergency Services Department, Rich will continue to support them and make sure that the safety of our citizens is the top priority of Renton's government. Rich has participated in Fire Ops 101 and ride-alongs with Renton Police officers to better understand the day-to-day issues faced by the men and women keeping us safe. Rich has received the endorsement of the Renton Firefighters Local 864 and the Renton Police Officers' Guild.

Neighborhoods. Rich believes that Renton's strength comes from its neighborhoods. A strong advocate and participant in the City's Neighborhood Program, Rich served four years as the President of the North Renton Neighborhood Association and continues service as a member of the Board of Directors.

Efficient Government. Rich's many years of government service allows him to study governmental operations with an eye for better process. Rich was recognized by Governor Locke for efficiencies he championed in providing customer service to the Department of Revenue, received an outstanding team award from Attorney General Rob McKenna, and received multiple Commendations from then Attorney General Christine Gregoire.

Economic Development and Responsible Growth. Rich will advocate for responsible development and a balance between industry, business and obtainable housing. Rich will continue the City's tradition of encouraging living-wage jobs, along with business growth that will continue to allow the City the financial ability to provide services for our citizens.

Environmental Concerns. Rich understands Renton's unique environmental position and the impacts created by growth and development. Rich serves as a member of the Cedar River Council and King County's Regional Water Quality Committee. He will continue to make decisions about Renton's future understanding the environmental needs of Renton.

Equal Rights. Rich is strongly in favor of equal rights under the law. Renton's diversity requires its government to be cognizant and supportive of the differences that make a strong community. Rich's service on the council, outreach in the community and activism on the Renton Technical College Board of Trustees shows his commitment to those of all walks of life.
